The Obituary

Our hearts are filled with sorrow, and the tears will flow when our loved ones are taken from us, but we should still our grief long enough to think what this home going means. Toils and burden-bearing are exchanged for the repose of heaven. We should rejoice and thank God for a life which leaves behind it a radiance of purity, goodness and peace.

The useful life of Deacon Rosevelt Hogan ended when the Lord called and he answered on February 21, 1988.

Deacon Hogan was born February 10, 1902 in McDade, Louisiana, the second of two children born to the union of Henry and Louivory Hogan.

He was united in holy matrimony to District Missionary Gustine Hogan and is the father of two children: Mary and Willie. In 1945, he and his wife came to San Francisco, California. He worked for the Bethlehem Steel Ship Company until his retirement.

Deacon Hogan was saved and baptized under Bishop Sims at Holy Temple C.O.G.I.C. He was a faithful member of Gethsemane C.O.G.I.C. and later until his departure at the Greater Little Chapel C.O.G.I.C. He served as a dedicated and sincere servant of God.

Deacon Hogan leaves to cherish his memory a loving and devoted wife: Missionary Gustine Hogan; two children: Mary Simpson of Shreveport, Louisiana and Willie Hogan of Bossier City, Louisiana; eleven grandchildren, sixteen great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and many loving friends who will miss him dearly.

In Appreciation!

Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
Or sat quietly in a chair
Perhaps you sent a floral piece
If so we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
As any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you very much.
